

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES 2017

Social and Human Sciences Sector

The UNESCO New Delhi Office offers internship opportunities in support of the activities of the Social and Human Sciences Sector (SHS) for a duration of 4 to 6 months. Under the direct supervision of the Programme Specialist of the Social and Human Sciences Sector (SHS) and the authority of the Director of the UNESCO New Delhi Office, the Intern shall assist the Programme Specialist for SHS in the implementation of SHS activities related to supporting the Internal Migration in India Initiative (IMII) and the UNESCO Gender Youth Migration (GYM) web portal initiative.

This will specifically entail:

1. Undertaking content research and data collection, analysis, drafting and editing of documents highlighting issues of migration (internal and international); and keeping GYM portal regularly updated with new resources (audios, videos, policies, papers) and new events or policy development on migration;
2. Supporting the development and follow-up of project proposals and mobilization of extra-budgetary funding (such as Community Radio and Migration, Internal-International Migration Nexus in Asia, and Creating Urban Spaces Inclusive of Migrants through Community Radios);
3. Support the organization of media events and workshops, and draft relevant background notes, concept notes, media briefs, correspondence and press releases;

Qualifications:

M.A. in a field related to demographic studies, political science, developmental studies, or equivalent.
Excellent verbal and written communications skills in English.
Excellent computer proficiency.

UNESCO's internships are intended on a voluntary basis and all the expenses connected with it will have to be borne by the candidate or by the candidates' sponsoring institution/government.

A test will be conducted to assess the computer proficiency of the candidate.

BACKGROUND NOTE

What is the Gender Youth Migration Initiative (GYM)?

The Gender Youth Migration Initiative (GYM) is a UNESCO Online Initiative on Migration, launched in 2013 within the framework of UNESCO's Internal Migration in India Initiative \(IMII\). UNESCO GYM (www.unescogym.org) aims at linking students, researchers, practitioners and decision-makers working on or interested in migration, enabling them to learn from each other and keeping them updated on new research and developments.

The GYM web-portal now contains over 450 resources on migration, internal and international, with a primary focus on India and South Asia. These resources include research, data, policy, best practices, audio-visual, and lists of institutes and networks.
